The Journal
News of the Churches of God

Issue No. 107 (Vol. X, No. 2)
John 8:32
Feb. 28, 2006

Catch the vision in July in Florida

By John Warren
T H E J O U R N A L

Cornerstone Publications founder dies after cancer battle

BY JOHN WARREN
T H E J O U R N A L

Servants’ News is back on bimonthly schedule

If you’re not already on the list, you can subscribe to the print and E-mail versions, which are scheduled to come out six times per year, by writing PO Box 474, Port Austin, Mich. 48467, or go to www.servantsnews.com.

The issue also reports on the status of Port Austin Bible Camp and Port Austin Bible Church and includes notice of the planned PABC-sponsored Feast of Tabernacles observance beginning Oct. 6, 2006.

The Genesis Flood’s coauthor dies at 87

By Harry Morris
THE JOURNAL

C ELEBRITIES is a good New Testament Passover book, claims Dave Havir

3

B R O O K L Y N, N.Y.—Gilford Monrose, an elder in an inde- pendent Church of God 7th Day congregation, announces the Catch the Visions Youth Conference set for July 5-8 in Jeffersonville, S. Carolina. This year’s theme: “That the World May Know.”

Still, the name change is not on hold and the process for finding a new name continues,” according to a writer for the church’s personal-correspondence department.

“We have been working on this for some time,” based on the feedback from members and friends, pastors, the name that had been proposed during Grace International Church’s on May 8, 2005, letter to supporters: “The name change is not on hold and the process for finding a new name continues,” according to a writer for the church’s personal.correspondence department.

Genevieve Murphy

Martyrdom in Milwaukee—Tom Geiger comforts his 12-year-old son Robert at the Shaker Hotel in Brookfield, Wis., a few hours after eight Living Church of God members died of gunshot wounds during a Sabbath service in the Milwaukee suburb in March 2005. At right is an underhanded sheriff’s deputy. See an article about Mr. Geiger’s new book, Martyrdom in Milwaukee, on this page. [Photo courtesy www.martyrdominnmilwaukee.com]

A Living Church of God member’s book tells insider’s story of tragic events of March 2005

Mr. Rector wrote about his health in a May 8, 2005, letter to supporters: “As you can see from my state of health, has been very critical for at least 12-18 months. I first began having major symptoms of cancer in January 1998 when I almost bled to death. After a lengthy recovery, I once again suffered a major internal hemorrhage and ended up having to have two thirds of my stomach removed in a life-saving emergency operation. It was then that I was diagnosed with non-Hodgkin’s lymphoma.”

Tom Geiger is a good man to tell the story of the massacre in a Shaker hotel in a Milwaukee suburb a little over a year ago. He’s a talker, and he’s a writer. He is also profoundly affected by the deaths of eight fellow Living Church of God members during that Sabbath service in Brookfield, Wis., on March 12, 2005.

Still, “the name change is not on hold and the process for finding a new name continues,” according to a writer for the church’s personal-correspondence department.

“We have been working on this for some time,” based on the feedback from members and friends, pastors, the name that had been proposed during Grace International Church’s on May 8, 2005, letter to supporters: “The name change is not on hold and the process for finding a new name continues,” according to a writer for the church’s personal.correspondence department.

Genevieve Murphy

Martyrdom in Milwaukee—Tom Geiger comforts his 12-year-old son Robert at the Shaker Hotel in Brookfield, Wis., a few hours after eight Living Church of God members died of gunshot wounds during a Sabbath service in the Milwaukee suburb in March 2005. At right is an underhanded sheriff’s deputy. See an article about Mr. Geiger’s new book, Martyrdom in Milwaukee, on this page. [Photo courtesy www.martyrdominnmilwaukee.com]

A Living Church of God member’s book tells insider’s story of tragic events of March 2005

Mr. Rector wrote about his health in a May 8, 2005, letter to supporters: “As you can see from my state of health, has been very critical for at least 12-18 months. I first began having major symptoms of cancer in January 1998 when I almost bled to death. After a lengthy recovery, I once again suffered a major internal hemorrhage and ended up having to have two thirds of my stomach removed in a life-saving emergency operation. It was then that I was diagnosed with non-Hodgkin’s lymphoma.”

Tom Geiger is a good man to tell the story of the massacre in a Shaker hotel in a Milwaukee suburb a little over a year ago. He’s a talker, and he’s a writer. He is also profoundly affected by the deaths of eight fellow Living Church of God members during that Sabbath service in Brookfield, Wis., on March 12, 2005.

Still, “the name change is not on hold and the process for finding a new name continues,” according to a writer for the church’s personal-correspondence department.

“We have been working on this for some time,” based on the feedback from members and friends, pastors, the name that had been proposed during Grace International Church’s on May 8, 2005, letter to supporters: “The name change is not on hold and the process for finding a new name continues,” according to a writer for the church’s personal.correspondence department.

Genevieve Murphy

Martyrdom in Milwaukee—Tom Geiger comforts his 12-year-old son Robert at the Shaker Hotel in Brookfield, Wis., a few hours after eight Living Church of God members died of gunshot wounds during a Sabbath service in the Milwaukee suburb in March 2005. At right is an underhanded sheriff’s deputy. See an article about Mr. Geiger’s new book, Martyrdom in Milwaukee, on this page. [Photo courtesy www.martyrdominnmilwaukee.com]

A Living Church of God member’s book tells insider’s story of tragic events of March 2005

Mr. Rector wrote about his health in a May 8, 2005, letter to supporters: “As you can see from my state of health, has been very critical for at least 12-18 months. I first began having major symptoms of cancer in January 1998 when I almost bled to death. After a lengthy recovery, I once again suffered a major internal hemorrhage and ended up having to have two thirds of my stomach removed in a life-saving emergency operation. It was then that I was diagnosed with non-Hodgkin’s lymphoma.”

Tom Geiger is a good man to tell the story of the massacre in a Shaker hotel in a Milwaukee suburb a little over a year ago. He’s a talker, and he’s a writer. He is also profoundly affected by the deaths of eight fellow Living Church of God members during that Sabbath service in Brookfield, Wis., on March 12, 2005.

Still, “the name change is not on hold and the process for finding a new name continues,” according to a writer for the church’s personal-correspondence department.

“We have been working on this for some time,” based on the feedback from members and friends, pastors, the name that had been proposed during Grace International Church’s on May 8, 2005, letter to supporters: “The name change is not on hold and the process for finding a new name continues,” according to a writer for the church’s personal.correspondence department.

Genevieve Murphy

Martyrdom in Milwaukee—Tom Geiger comforts his 12-year-old son Robert at the Shaker Hotel in Brookfield, Wis., a few hours after eight Living Church of God members died of gunshot wounds during a Sabbath service in the Milwaukee suburb in March 2005. At right is an underhanded sheriff’s deputy. See an article about Mr. Geiger’s new book, Martyrdom in Milwaukee, on this page. [Photo courtesy www.martyrdominnmilwaukee.com]
CONFERENCE ATTENDEES—From left: Joan and Paul Voss of Amity, Ore.; Delta and Rene Messier of Summerland, B.C., Canada; Jeff and Brian Gale of Derby, England; Dave Harris of Fort Collins, Colo.; Margaret Adair of Escondido, Calif.; Michael Link of Ramona, Calif.; Edwin Pope of Murrieta, Calif.; Norbert Link of Ramona; and Wray Zehrung of Fort Collins. (Photo by Johanna Link)

New programs that would advertise in the church’s newest booklet, church-sponsored Web sites, www.thejournal.org. and keep up with your Bible teachings will be highlighted in advertisements, and Bible teachings will be held at the Hilton Fort Collins facility and will be based on the church’s newest booklet, Mysteries of the Bible. The local church, which meets in Ramona, played host to the weekend’s activities for the conference attendees. Visiting elders Brian Gale (Derby, England) and Rene Messier (Summerland, B.C., Canada) delivered sermons on the Sabbath. The entire board of the CEG was present for the meeting. Officers are Mrs. Pope, president; Norbert Link, vice president; Dave Harris, treasurer; and Margaret Adair of Escondido, Calif., secretary. Also on the board are Mr. Messier and Mr. Gale. Wray Zehrung of Fort Collins, also present, coordinates the extensive Web presence for the church. For more information see www. eternalgod.org or write CEG, P.O. Box 270519, San Diego, Calif. 92198, U.S.A.

To subscribe, send a gift subscription or renew for yourself or a friend, simply send a check or money order along with the subscription coupon at left (or provide the information on a plain sheet of paper). Or now you can pay for your subscription or renewal with a credit card. Be sure to check your mailing label for the number of issues remaining in your subscription. If you have only one or two “zero” issues remaining, we suggest mailing in your renewal now so you don’t miss any issues. Please include your mailing label or a photocopy of it, or hand-copy the information from the label. Contact THE JOURNAL for subscriptions and renewals at Box 1020, Big Sandy, Texas 75755, U.S.A., or at the distributors’ addresses on page 2. See also THE JOURNAL’s Web site, at www.thejournal.org.

Don’t look back
YREKA, Calif.—Ed Lain has a new Web site about archaeology and other interests of his. The Journal featured Mr. Lain in a page-1 article, “Don’t Look Back, Advise Self-Taught archeologist.” In the November-December 2005 issue. See Mr. Lain’s new site at www.edlain.com.

Leroy Neff credited
BIG SANDY, Texas—The United Church of God an International Association, headquartered in a suburb of Cincinnati, Ohio, credited Leroy Neff as an “outstanding member of the UCG during a recent council of elders meeting.” Mr. Neff and his wife, Maxine, attend the congregation that meets in the Gilmer-Big Sandy area. “The congrega- tion is in the process of complet- ing construction of a new church building in Big Sandy,” said Mr. Neff. “Mr. Neff is a retired employee and former evangelistic minister in the Worldwide Church of God and Ambas- sador Bible College.” His duties over the years included serving as church trea- surer at an affiliated church and as a traveling member of the Ambassador, teaching Old Testament Survey and other courses. He graduated from the Pasa- dena, Calif., campus in 1969.

ABC update
MILFORD, Ohio—The Ambassador Bible Center, a seven-month course of study of Bible-related subjects sponsored by the United Church of God at its headquarters here, is teaching its largest class ever, 54 students.

ABC began in 2000. For more information, visit www.ucg.org.

Interactive streaming audio
DELTA, B.C., Canada—Mr. Rattee contacted THE JOURNAL recently to talk about “our assembly and the exciting things we have done online.” “To find out more about Mr. Rattee and friends in the Assembly of the Eternal God have been in operation since 1989 in Canada and in making use of the Internet, visit www.godtruth.net.” The ministry includes Sabbath services, Bible studies, and streaming audio. “With this technology,” Mr. Rattee said, “you may write com- ments at any time and ask questions during the question period after the main message. If you have a microphone on your computer, the audio option will be available so that everyone can hear your comments or questions.” Mr. Rattee said he wants to “let others know about the great opportunity the Internet provides for young people to learn about God’s truth.” Write Mr. Rattee at therat- etes@ddcomet.com or P.O. Box 294, 5101 48th Ave., Delta, B.C. V4K 3N7, Canada.

Rattee said, “you may write com- ments at any time and ask questions during the question period after the main message. If you have a microphone on your computer, the audio option will be available so that everyone can hear your comments or questions.” Mr. Rattee said he wants to “let others know about the great opportunity the Internet provides for young people to learn about God’s truth.” Write Mr. Rattee at therat- etes@ddcomet.com or P.O. Box 294, 5101 48th Ave., Delta, B.C. V4K 3N7, Canada.

Interactive streaming audio
DELTA, B.C., Canada—Mr. Rattee contacted THE JOURNAL recently to talk about “our assembly and the exciting things we have done online.” “To find out more about Mr. Rattee and friends in the Assembly of the Eternal God have been in operation since 1989 in Canada and in making use of the Internet, visit www.godtruth.net.” The ministry includes Sabbath services, Bible studies, and streaming audio. “With this technology,” Mr. Rattee said, “you may write com- ments at any time and ask questions during the question period after the main message. If you have a microphone on your computer, the audio option will be available so that everyone can hear your comments or questions.” Mr. Rattee said he wants to “let others know about the great opportunity the Internet provides for young people to learn about God’s truth.” Write Mr. Rattee at therat- etes@ddcomet.com or P.O. Box 294, 5101 48th Ave., Delta, B.C. V4K 3N7, Canada.

Interactive streaming audio
DELTA, B.C., Canada—Mr. Rattee contacted THE JOURNAL recently to talk about “our assembly and the exciting things we have done online.” “To find out more about Mr. Rattee and friends in the Assembly of the Eternal God have been in operation since 1989 in Canada and in making use of the Internet, visit www.godtruth.net.” The ministry includes Sabbath services, Bible studies, and streaming audio. “With this technology,” Mr. Rattee said, “you may write com- ments at any time and ask questions during the question period after the main message. If you have a microphone on your computer, the audio option will be available so that everyone can hear your comments or questions.” Mr. Rattee said he wants to “let others know about the great opportunity the Internet provides for young people to learn about God’s truth.” Write Mr. Rattee at therat- etes@ddcomet.com or P.O. Box 294, 5101 48th Ave., Delta, B.C. V4K 3N7, Canada.