The Journal invites readers’ Feast reports

T HE JOURNAL invites readers to send in reports of their 2008 Feast of Tabernacles observances.

Members of the Churches of God and other Sabbatarian fellowships met at several hundred Feast sites in 2007, with most observance beginning the evening of Sept. 26.

You still have time to get your reports to the T HE JOURNAL.

Mail your information to T HE JOURNAL, P.O. Box 31, Jacksonville, FL 32231 U.S.A. Or E-mail it to info@thejournal.org. Or you may fax it to (903) 636-9097.

Photographs as prints or E-mail attachments are also welcomed. Please include in 94 country-sponsored web sites.

The worldwide Church of God, based in Glen-dora, Calif., says its current membership list includes 34,580 in the United States, 1,360 in Canada, 929 in 14 countries, and 696 in South Africa. The total cost of the facility is about $586,000.

The deed to the building is held locally by the trustees on behalf of the parent organization when the trustees meet at a local bank in Big Sandy, retired, perhaps 20 years from now.

Mr. Kilough, in his sermon, emphasized the importance of the Sabbath, and while some of that number may be people who attend church services but are not officially members.

Planning and building

Mr. Troybig credited UCG member Morris Foster of Gladewater, Texas, for donating his service as the building project’s manager over the seven years since the church-member meeting, in 2001, that began the plan-ling and building process.

The official groundbreaking for the one was 1,750-square-foot metal structure was a little more than three years ago, on Nov. 11, 2004.

Building fund

The congregation, known officially as the Church of God in East Texas, raised $225,000 for a building fund, with the home office of the United Church of God an International Association, in Milford, Ohio, contributing an additional $50,000.

The total cost of the facility is about $586,000.
